Summary Profile

Nada is a Junior Associate within the Corporate and Commercial Department at M&CO Legal. Nada has an L.L.B. from University of Paris II - Panthéon-Assas, Dubai campus, graduating with high honors. With expertise in both common law and civil law systems, Nada brings a well-rounded legal perspective to her practice.

After her graduation from the University of Paris II, she gained practical experience in the aviation sector through an internship at Air Arabia PJSC's legal department. This role allowed her to deepen her understanding of airline-related legal frameworks and commercial operations. Through this experience, she developed a strong passion for corporate and commercial law, leading her to join M&CO Legal as an intern in October 2024. Her dedication, legal acumen, and strong work ethic quickly earned her a position as a Junior Associate. Nada is recognized for her diligence, analytical skills, and commitment to delivering high-quality legal solutions, making her a valuable asset to the firm.

Experience

Nada has a solid foundation in both common and civil law jurisdictions, with three years of academic training complemented by hands-on legal experience in the UAE, a civil law jurisdiction. Her diverse background enables her to navigate complex legal issues effectively across multiple legal systems. She has substantial experience in different facets of the law.

Focus Area

Nada has experience in corporate transactions, structures and intensive legal research in a vast variety of legal areas, particularly in corporate structures and restructures. .
