Summary Profile

International legal professional with a strong comparative law background, holding dual LL.B. degrees in English and Spanish law and two Master of Laws (LL.M.) degrees, including an LL.M. in International Arbitration from the prestigious White & Case International Arbitration Program at the University of Miami School of Law. Academically and professionally trained across common law and civil law systems, with a focus on complex cross-border dispute resolution and international commercial matters.

Professional experience includes international arbitration traineeships at leading global law firms such as Dentons and White & Case, contributing to proceedings under institutional rules including the Swiss Arbitration Centre and ICDR, and advising on jurisdictional strategy and enforcement of arbitral awards across multiple jurisdictions.

Served as as Legal Counsel advising international clients on relocation, immigration, corporate structuring, and domestic and international tax matters in Spain.

Quadrilingual in English, Spanish, German, and Russian, with a proven ability to operate seamlessly across diverse legal systems, cultures, and business environments.

Focus Area

International commercial arbitration, including institutional and ad hoc proceedings; recognition and enforcement of domestic and foreign arbitral awards before the DIFC and ADGM Courts; arbitration-related court applications and jurisdictional matters; strategic settlement and negotiated dispute resolution in cross-border commercial disputes.
